The Revival We Need: What Did Oswald J. Smith Advocate?

A Call to Personal Holiness

Smith believed that revival begins with the individual. Personal repentance, sanctification, and a surrendered life are essential. Without personal holiness, corporate revival cannot be sustained.

An Emphasis on Evangelism and Missions

He challenged believers to prioritize evangelism, emphasizing that revival should produce a harvest of souls. He famously said, "The church that loses its passion for souls will lose its power." The revival we need involves a renewed commitment to winning the lost.

Restoring Prayer to Its Central Place

Smith urged believers to prioritize prayer as the engine of revival. He saw prayer meetings as vital moments where divine fire could be rekindled.

Reigniting the Spirit's Power

He called for a fresh outpouring of the Holy Spirit, believing that without the Spirit's empowerment, efforts are futile.

Addressing Cultural and Societal Issues

Smith recognized that revival must confront societal ills—poverty, injustice, and moral decay. The church's mission extends into transforming society through the gospel.
