Pak Studies, introduced as a compulsory subject after Pakistan's independence, has historically been a cornerstone of the curriculum aimed at fostering national identity and understanding of Pakistan's history, culture, geography, and socio-political landscape. The assessment methods for

Pak Studies have evolved from essay-based examinations to more diverse formats, including MCQs, short questions, and structured essays.

The adoption of MCQs in Pak Studies gained momentum in the late 20th century, paralleling global trends towards objective testing. The shift was motivated by the need for standardized, efficient, and scalable assessment tools capable of evaluating large student populations.
